# March 1948

Brigadier General E. J. McGaw, USA Commandant The Army Information School Carlisle Barracks Carlisle, Pa.

Dear General McGav:

Thank you very much for your very flattering letter of 3 March 1948. I regret also that I was unable to meet you, but I started back to Washington as soon after the lecture as I could.

It will be a great pleasure to meet you personally, and I am sure a lecture before your classes can be arranged; if not by myself, certainly by someone in the Central Intelligence Agency.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours.
